5. Application for Child Allowance

The Child Allowance System was revised as follows in Oct. 2024. Those who received a notice from the village in Aug. need to submit the necessary documents to Childcare Support Section by Mon. 31 Mar.

- The allowance income cap has been removed.

- Eligibility has been extended to all parents with children up to high school age. (It was offered up to junior high school age.)

- Families receive a monthly allowance of 15,000 yen per child for the first and second children up to the age of 2, and 10,000 yen per child from the age of 3 through high school age. For the third and subsequent children, the amount increases to 30,000 yen per child through high school age.

- Children up to university age, meaning up to the end of March of the year in which the child turns 22 years old, are included in the calculation of multiple children.

- Payment is made in even-numbered months (6 times a year).
